No. 3:10-0935
JUDGE CAMPBELL
MAGISTRATE JUDGE KNOWLES

AGREED ORDER OF DISMISSAL AS TO
SETON CORPORATION D/B/A BAPTIST HOSPITAL

It appears to the Court, as evidenced by the signatures of counsel for the parties below, that the parties are in agreement that the defendant, Seton Corporation d/b/a Baptist Hospital (“Baptist Hospital”), should be dismissed from this case with prejudice. Plaintiffs’ counsel filed a Certificate of Good Faith at the outset of this case verifying a good faith basis for pursuing claims against Baptist Hospital, however discovery and further expert review has revealed that there is no longer a basis for pursuing this case against this defendant. Because of this change in circumstances as a result of discovery, the Court finds that the defendant, Seton Corporation d/b/a Baptist Hospital, is not entitled to any sanctions or discretionary costs in this matter.

Accordingly, the defendant, Seton Corporation d/b/a Baptist Hospital, is hereby dismissed with prejudice. There shall be no award of sanctions or discretionary costs to Seton Corporation d/b/a Baptist Hospital as a result of this dismissal. Any award of court costs is reserved pending resolution of the plaintiffs' claims against the remaining parties.

ENTER this 20th day of January, 2012.
